President

Al Lang

Vice-President	John Conner
Treasurer	Albert Wardin
Secretary	Jane Thomas
Membership Chairman	Fred Rolater
Editor	Jim Taulman

Jim West is acting as the webmaster of the TBHS Web site.

Jim Taulman indicated that the 2010 issue of the Journal is going to be most special. "There is one person to whom the Tennessee Baptist Historical Society owes its very existence —Dr. Albert Wardin. No person, living or dead, has contributed as much to recording, writing, and furthering Tennessee Baptist history as has Albert. In recognition of Albert Wardin's great achievements, our 2010 Journal issue will be a Festschrift honoring Albert for his multiple contributions to Tennessee Baptist history." In addition to himself, Jim Taulman introduced James Porch, Roger Freeman, Bill Sumners, Rus Roach, and Fred Rolater as some of the writers for the Festschrift.

Jim Taulman introduced the speaker. Pam Dennis, Director, Luther L. Gobbel Library at Lambuth University in Jackson, Tennessee, spoke on the theme "Christian Education in Tennessee Baptist History." Her presentation included an account of Brownsville Baptist Female College and Hall-Moody Junior College. Brownsville College no longer exists but Hall-Moody today is a state school, the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Al Lang expressed thanks to Dr. Dennis for her presentation. He also expressed thanks to Dr. Porch for the use of the facilities and for providing lunch.

Al Lang concluded the annual meeting with prayer.
